14. REQUIRED: Please discuss why you wish to transfer or visit at the University of Connecticut School of Law. Please note that the Admissions Committee is interested in your answer to this specific question and a general personal statement will not suffice.

15. OPTIONAL: If you have overcome physical, economic, cultural, linguistic or educational obstacles, or if there is anything else that you believe the Admissions Committee should be aware of when considering your application, please explain or discuss the circumstances fully in a separate essay.

Because of the high ethical standards to which lawyers are held, by signing this application or the Certification Letter, or transmitting the application electronically, I certify that I recognize that the failure to disclose an act or event relevant to my application, particularly those calling into question character, honesty, or integrity may be more significant, and lead to more serious consequences, than the act or event itself. My failure to provide truthful answers, or to fail to inform the Admissions Committee of any changes to my answers or personal circumstances within 15 days of any change may result in revocation of admission, disciplinary action or denial of permission to practice law by the State in which I seek admission. I certify that the statements and essays are my own work and that the information provided in this application and all attachments is complete and accurate to the best of my information and belief. I have an ongoing obligation to inform the Admissions Office in writing of any false or misleading statements and any changed circumstances, including disciplinary actions and arrests, within 15 days of my first notice of such events.

I realize that the Law School reserves the right to withdraw an offer of admission if I fail to maintain satisfactory scholastic standing for work in progress, if final records fail to show completion of courses and/or degrees required for admission, or if the admission decision was based on incomplete or inaccurate information furnished by me.
