I/We understand that the University of Connecticut School of Law:

Does not interview, screen, approve, or otherwise qualify students and staff viewing the housing lists;

Does not assume responsibility regarding student/staff housing arrangements, nor does it act as an agent between students/staff and apartment owners;

Housing information is available to admitted and currently enrolled students and their families, staff, and faculty of the University of Connecticut School of Law;

Housing information is posted electronically to an address on the University of Connecticut School of Law web site that is password protected, the location of which is provided by staff members of the University of Connecticut only to the parties named above;

Reserves the right to limit listing information provided by landlords and reserves the right to remove a listing and/or refuse a listing at any time;

Landlords are responsible to make sure rental properties meet all zoning, fire, housing and other ordinances or regulations;

In accordance with provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Federal and State laws and executive orders pertaining to civil rights, including but not limited to Conn. Gen. Stat. § 46a-64 (2003), the University of Connecticut School of Law prohibits acts of discrimination and requires the provision of services regardless of age, ancestry, color, national origin, marital status, race, religion, sex, sexual preference, status as a disabled veteran or veteran of the Vietnam Era, physical or mental disability or record thereof, or mental retardation. All listings must be made in accordance with the policy of non-discrimination.
